THURSDAY MAY 14

Real Estate / Housing Tour

Michael Geller

6:30 pm to 8:30 pm

Urban Planner Michael Geller will lead a tour using HeyYa Carts street legal electric golf carts, starting in the Kerrisdale Community Centre parking lot. Participants will learn about '15-minute neighbourhoods,' why we seem to be losing many longstanding 'legacy' retail stores in Kerrisdale and Dunbar, and what we can do about it.

Because HeyYa Carts will have to be arranged for, participants are asked to register at least a week in advance. Please send an email to Jennifer Maynard at jen@southlandsfarm.ca, using the subject line "HeyYa Cart Tour." Total capacity will be 40 to 50 participants. Donations are welcome to help cover rental fees.

FRIDAY MAY 15

Back Lane Walkabout
John Atkin and Angus McIntyre
7 to 9 pm

This will be about two kms long, with a few short hills but easy walking for most people. We will start in Balaclava Park at West 29th Ave. and Balaclava St. The final two blocks will be on West 30th Ave. for viewing the Storybook Castle houses.

Wiley Wei-Chiun Ho
VPL Central Library Montalbano Theatre
Level 8 – 350 W. Georgia
7:00 pm to 8:00 pm

Wiley Wei-Chiun Ho discusses her memoir The Astronaut Children of Dunbar Street (2026).

From the age of twelve, Wiley's parents returned to Taiwan to work, leaving her to grow up with her siblings in Canada.

They were to study hard, stay out of trouble, and not tell "outsiders" about their family. Wiley Wei-Chiun Ho traces the emotional fault lines of a family divided by an ocean amid shifting global powers. Come and ponder a local family's difficult story shared from the heart of one of their children. Learn more at:
